I. Catalog Description

Provides a design for bilingual students who have acquired Spanish listening and speaking skills. Develops reading and writing skills with attention to spelling, the written accent and verb forms. Prerequisite: READ 0309 (can be taken concurrently) or by placement exam. (3:0).

II. Course Objectives

Upon satisfactory completion of this course, the students will be able to:

A. Demonstrate oral reading skills by reading at a speed equivalent to that of everyday speech. The reading topics are of current events and short stories 1-3 pages in length.
B. Demonstrate reading comprehension skills by correctly answering objective and analytical questions about the reading selections.
C. Demonstrate writing skills through the writing of current topics, short story analysis and films. Through these analyses, the students will demonstrate knowledge of the aesthetic principles exemplified by the literary readings; an informed personal reaction to the literary readings; knowledge of social and historical values expressed in the literary readings; and knowledge of Hispanic culture through analysis of Hispanic films.
D. Demonstrate knowledge of Spanish grammar and language skills through the study of verb tenses and vocabulary development.

III. Evaluation

A. Pre-assessment
Instructors should check each student’s Placement exam results the first day of class; those who do not qualify should be sent back to admissions.

B. Challenge Exams
Students who wish to challenge the course should contact the Testing Center and the Foreign Languages Coordinator. Challenges must be accomplished before the census cut-off date. Students who previously have received a W or a letter grade for the course are not eligible to challenge the course.

Revised by Discipline: Spring 2010
C. Post-assessment

The instructor will maintain a continuous record of each student’s progress on an institutionally approved grade sheet or computerized substitute. All instructors must keep records in such a way that information would be clear to a second party having to check grade computation in special cases. An explanatory legend should be provided on the grade sheet.

D. The evaluation of the exams should be based on the student’s mastery of the assigned objectives. In addition to readings, verb tenses, vocabulary and spelling, it is essential that the instructor require writing assignments throughout the semester.

1. Final Examination
   A final examination is required.

2. Grading Percentages
   Grade percentages for determining the course grade may be devised by the individual instructor.

3. Retakes and Make-up Exams and Class Assignments.
   At the instructor’s discretion, students may be allowed to rewrite papers or retest for higher grades.
