EPCC Launches Tejano Go! Scavenger Hunt

El Paso TX April 4, 2019 – As part of its year-long 50th Anniversary celebration, El Paso Community College (EPCC) is launching Tejano Go! scavenger hunts at the Community Open House event on Saturday April 6, 2019, from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. at Valle Verde Campus, 919 Hunter Dr. The event is free and open to the public.

EPCC has created scavenger hunts on each of its five campuses and at the Administrative Services Center as a fun, interactive way for people to learn about EPCC history and campuses. To access the hunts, go to <https://www.scavify.com/download> and search “EPCC Tejano Go!” or download the Scavify app from App Store and Google Play and search for “EPCC Tejano Go!”

Everyone who completes a hunt will have the the chance to win prizes, like portable hard drives or tablets. People who complete the hunts at all of the locations will be entered in a drawing to win a laptop.

For 50 years, EPCC has been a progressive educational leader providing quality, affordable education that facilitates success for students and increases the economic prosperity of our region.
