I. Catalog Description

Presents further exploration of composition, media, and techniques with emphasis on prolonged studies and experimental drawing. May include life drawing using live model. Prerequisite: ARTS 1316 (2:4). Lab fee.

II. Course Objectives

Upon satisfactory completion of the course, the student will be able to:

- A. Use traditional media, techniques, and the visual language established in Drawing I to explore and analyze more complex compositional problems.
- B. Apply a sophisticated use of new drawing media and techniques as related to specific visual problems.
- C. Execute the difference between drawing as a study verses drawing as a finished work.
- D. Illustrate drawing with content verses drawing as pure form.
- E. Use an experimental approach to drawing focusing on a more liberal approach in utilizing materials, techniques, and invention of drawing.

III. Evaluation

- A. Pre-assessment

Instructors should check each student's prerequisites the first week of class: those who do not qualify should be sent back to Admissions.

- B. Challenge Exam

There is no challenge exam for this course.

- C. Post-assessment

Each student's grade will be determined by the instructor upon successful completion of the course objectives. Instructors will maintain adequate records of student progress according to the guidelines established by the college.

D. Remediation

Remediation will be determined by the individual instructor. During this time the student is encouraged to seek the advice of the instructor. Remedial work or study will not be in place of regular open studio to outside study/practice activities.

IV. Disability Statement (American with/Disabilities Act [ADA])

EPCC offers a variety of services to persons with documented sensory, mental, physical, or temporary disabling conditions to promote success in classes. If you have a disability and believe you may need services, you are encouraged to contact the Center for Students with Disabilities to discuss your needs with a counselor. All discussions and documentation are kept confidential. Offices located: VV Rm C-112 (831-2426); TM Rm 1400 (831-5808); RG Rm B-201 (831-4198); NWC Rm M-54 (831-8815); and MDP Rm A-125 (831-7024).

V. 6 Drop Rule

Students who began attending Texas public institutions of higher education for the first time during the Fall 2007 semester or later are subject to a 6-Drop limit for all undergraduate classes. Developmental, ESL, Dual Credit and Early College High School classes are exempt from this rule. All students should consult with their instructor before dropping a class. Academic assistance is available. Students are encouraged to see Counseling Services if dropping because exemptions may apply. Refer to the EPCC catalog and website for additional information.
