COURSE TITLE	Chamber Music Ensemble III
COURSE CREDIT HOURS	1 0 : 3 Credits Lec Lab

I. Catalog Description

Continues developing musical skills through the study and performance of a wide variety of ensemble literature from the sixteenth through the twentieth century. Open to all string, woodwind, brass, percussion, and piano students. Prerequisite: MUEN 1136. (0:3).

II. Course Objectives

Upon satisfactory completion of this course the student will be able to:

- A. Participate in public performances of popular, classical and contemporary chamber music.
- B. Play chamber music literature in various styles as indicated by the music selected.
- C. Apply the principles and techniques of individual and group chamber music ensembles.
- D. Demonstrate principles of stage projection and performance behavior appropriate to chamber music ensembles.

III. Evaluation

Course evaluation is based on subjective appraisal by the instructor of:

- A. Attendance at and cooperative participation in daily class sessions.
- B. Attendance at and cooperative participation in performances and rehearsals. The student must attend rehearsals and performances. The schedule of rehearsals and performances is listed in the Instructor's Course Requirements.
- C. Application of principles of chamber ensemble performance: intonation, rhythm accuracy and interpretation.
- D. Application of principles of stage projection and desirable performance behavior in performances.
- E. The final grade will be determined:
Each student is initially assumed to have an "A". Failure to attend any one public performance or rehearsal for a public performance will lower the letter grade by two letters Unsatisfactory efforts in any of A, C, or D above will lower the letter grade by one letter.
- F. Since there are no written assignments or formal tests in Chamber Ensemble, a policy on makeup of work is not applicable.

- G. Regular attendance in mandatory. Three unexcused absences will be grounds for being dropped from the course.

IV. Disability Statement (American with/Disabilities Act [ADA])

EPCC offers a variety of services to persons with documented sensory, mental, physical, or temporary disabling conditions to promote success in classes.
