I. Catalog Description

Surveys the history of architecture from ancient times through the Romanesque and Gothic periods. Requires outside assignments. Prerequisite: READ 0309 (can be taken concurrently) or by placement exam or ENGL 1301 with a “C” or better or ENGL 1302 with a “C” or better. (3:0).

II. Course Objectives

This course introduces the student to mankind’s western architectural heritage from the ancient time to the renaissance and baroque architectural periods (ca. 2500 BC thru 1500 AD). Significant examples of building and structures from the historic periods will be studied with an emphasis on the importance and development of stylistic and structural refinements and innovations.

The course is divided into five units or chapters that will cover the textbook along with topics included in the unit handouts.

The material in the textbook is the responsibility of the student.

Upon satisfactory completion of the course, the student will be able to:

- A. Discuss the development of architecture from ancient times thru the Gothic period.
- B. Describe the development of structural systems and uses of materials in architecture from 2500 BC to 1500 AD.
- C. Assess how one’s understanding of the past achievements in architecture assists us in addressing the challenges of the present times.

III. Evaluation

The grading criteria is based on unit exams, presentations, etc. at the instructor’s discretion.
