I. Catalog Description

Provides career-related activities encountered in the student’s area of specialization offered through an individualized agreement among the college, employer, and student. Under the supervision of the college and the employer, the student combines classroom learning with work experience. Includes a lecture component. (1:20).

II. Course Objectives

Upon satisfactory completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- A. Complete an internship in a business-related position.
- B. Identify careers in business.
- C. Demonstrate improved job-related performance of activities listed on your training plan.
- D. Communicate more effectively with company personnel in your area of training.
- E. Communicate, written and orally, your occupational values, goals, perceptions, and attitudes as related to your work experience.
- F. Conduct a successful job search, including resume preparation and interviewing techniques.

III. THECB Learning Outcomes (WECM)

As outlined in the learning plan, apply the theory, concepts, and skills involving specialized materials, tools, equipment, procedures, regulations, laws, and interactions within and among political, economic, environmental, social, and legal systems associated with the occupation and the business/industry and will demonstrate legal and ethical behavior, safety practices, interpersonal and teamwork skills, and appropriate written and verbal communication skills using the terminology of the occupation and the business/industry.

IV. Evaluation

- A. Preassessment
 Students must verify that they meet the prerequisites for the class in which they are enrolled, if applicable.
 Assessment Projects
 Sixty percent (60%) of the grade shall be based on the student completing a 320-hour internship in an accounting position. The grade will be based on the supervisor’s evaluation of the student work using the Cooperative Education Office’s Employer Mid-Term and Final Evaluation Forms. A student is evaluated in different areas by the supervisor using a scale of 1(outstanding) to 5 (unsatisfactory).

1. Twenty percent (20%) of the grade shall be based on the student attending Cooperative Education Office's workshops and instructor-conducted classes, which include completing a cover letter, resume, and interview, and maintaining a daily work experience journal.
2. Twenty percent (20%) of the grade shall be based on the student completing a work experience report, which will be submitted to the Cooperative Education Office and presented to the class.
