I. Catalog Description

Provides the student a weekly performance opportunity before an audience of peers, as well as exposure to diverse repertoire performed by other students. This course may be repeated. Required of Music Majors. Graded on a Pass/Fail basis.

II. Course Objectives

Upon satisfactory completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- A. Demonstrate proper planning and preparation for a public musical performance as a soloist and/or ensemble member.
- B. Perform with enhanced musicianship skills, to include selection of appropriate repertoire, appearance, poise, articulation, phrasing, and use of dynamics.
- C. Demonstrate good concert etiquette in a formal setting.
- D. Develop a musical repertoire covering a wide range of styles, historical periods, and composers.

III. Evaluation

This course is graded on a Pass/Fail basis. In order to pass the course, the following requirements must be met:

- A. Music Majors must perform on at least two class session recital programs during the semester.
- B. No more than three absences are allowed. Absence make up policy will be specified by the instructor.

IV. Disability Statement (Americans with Disabilities Act [ADA])

EPCC offers a variety of services to persons with documented sensory, mental, physical, or temporary disabling conditions to promote success in classes. If you have a disability and believe you may need services, you are encouraged to contact the Center for Students with Disabilities to discuss your needs with a counselor. All discussions and documentation are kept confidential. Offices located: VV Rm C-112 (831-2426); TM Rm 1400 (831-5808); RG Rm B-201 (831-4198); NWC Rm M-54 (831-8815); and MDP Rm A-125 (831-7024).

V. 6 Drop Rule

Students who began attending Texas public institutions of higher education for the first time during the Fall 2007 semester or later are subject to a 6-Drop limit for all undergraduate classes. Developmental, ESL, Dual Credit and Early College High School classes are exempt from this rule. All students should consult with their instructor before dropping a class. Academic assistance is available. Students are encouraged to see Counseling Services if dropping because exemptions may apply. Refer to the EPCC catalog and website for additional information.
