I. Catalog Description

Emphasizes practical training in the media for individualized goals and personal development. Presents an opportunity for students to pursue special areas of interest for which specific courses are not available. Students interested in pre-professional experience should enroll in this course. “Note: Students must secure internship prior to first day of class. Please contact EPCC Career and Transfer Services to review a list of possible Mass Communication internship at 831-2636 and in room S16 in the Student Services Center at the Valle Verde Campus.” (1:5). Lab fee.

II. Objectives

Upon satisfactory completion of this course, students will be able to:

- A. Develop the job skills that will lead to an entry-level position in the media.
- B. Compose a satisfactory resume.
- C. Respond effectively in a job interview.
- D. Participate as an effective member of the work site team.

III. Evaluation

The student is required to complete 240 internship hours in the practicum course. Two hundred and twenty-five hours will be earned at the work site and fifteen are derived from participation in the weekly one hour seminar. The internships are completed at electronic media outlets, including radio and television stations, production companies, and advertising agencies. During the semester, the student will spend a minimum of fifteen hours a week at the internship site.

IV. Disability Statement (Americans with/Disabilities Act [ADA])

EPCC offers a variety of services to persons with documented sensory, mental, physical, or temporary disabling conditions to promote success in classes. If you have a disability and believe you may need services, you are encouraged to contact the Center for Students with Disabilities to discuss your needs with a counselor. All discussions and documentation are kept confidential. Offices located: VV Rm C-112 (831-2426); TM Rm 1400 (831-5808); RG Rm B-201 (831-4198); NWC Rm M-54 (831-8815); and MDP Rm A-125 (831-7024).

V. 6 Drop Rule

Students who began attending Texas public institutions of higher education for the first time during the Fall 2007 semester or later are subject to a 6-Drop limit for all undergraduate classes. Developmental, ESL, Dual Credit and Early College High School classes are exempt from this rule. All students should consult with their instructor before dropping a class. Academic assistance is available. Students are encouraged to see Counseling Services if dropping because exemptions may apply. Refer to the EPCC catalog and website for additional information.
