I. Catalog Description

Continues providing individual study of performance-related aspects of singing, such as diction, style, and performance practices. This course is recommended for music majors whose principle instrument is voice. Provides one one-hour lesson and nine practice hours per week. (2:0). Requires Music Coordinator's Approval. Individual Instruction fee.

II. Course Objectives

Upon satisfactory completion of this course the student will be able to:

- A. Demonstrate correct posture while singing.
- B. Perform songs using good breath control, diction and correct pronunciation.
- C. Perform songs using the three tone colors: normal, dark and bright.
- D. Perform songs in an expressive, artistic manner.
- E. Perform approved solos from voice literature, both ensemble and individual.
- F. The above objectives will be a continual part of the students' coaching session. However, further attention to detail work will be given to breath control, tonal colors, posture, artistic expressive qualities of good vocal singing.
- G. Because of the student's advanced abilities, emphasis will be put on performance of vocal repertoire which demonstrates an understanding of the varied periods, styles, and techniques of vocal literature. Teaching/learning sessions will focus on style, language, and ensemble.
- H. This course provides the more advancing student with the opportunity to work on a regular basis with a coach/accompanist.

III. Evaluation

- A. Student evaluation will be based on the subjective appraisal by the instructor of student progress during the semester as shown in:
 - 1. Two tests, formal or informal, covering notation, rhythm and harmony.
 - 2. Vocal performance and participation.
 - 3. The performance of a composition selected by the instructor and the student, and of appropriate vocal exercises, before a jury. This performance will be evaluated by the instructor with the advice of the jury.
- B. The course grade as determined above will be reduced one letter for excessive absences; by two letters for failing to appear for juried examination.

IV. Disability Statement (Americans with/Disabilities Act [ADA])

EPCC offers a variety of services to persons with documented sensory, mental, physical, or temporary disabling conditions to promote success in classes. If you have a disability and believe you may need services, you are encouraged to contact the Center for Students with Disabilities to discuss your needs with a counselor.
