COURSE TITLE	Intermediate French II
COURSE CREDIT HOURS	3 3 : 0 Credits Lec Lab

I. Catalog Description

Continues the review and application of skills in listening comprehension, speaking, reading, and writing. Emphasizes conversation, vocabulary acquisition, reading, composition and culture. Prerequisite: FREN 2311. (3:0).

II. Course Objectives

Upon satisfactory completion of this course, the students will be able to:

- A. Demonstrate communicative competencies through on-going opportunities for oral practice in cultural and literary contexts.
- B. Demonstrate appreciation of literature through oral discussions of reading selections.
- C. Demonstrate familiarity with the contemporary cultures from the French-speaking countries and expand the students' ability to make cross-cultural comparisons.
- D. Demonstrate reading and understanding of authentic texts from the French-speaking world and to articulate their observations, reactions and opinions.

III. Evaluation

- A. Pre-assessment

Instructors should check each student's prerequisites (including Placement Exam results) the first day of class; those who do not qualify should be sent back to admissions.

- B. Challenge Exams

Students who wish to challenge the course should contact the Testing Center and the Foreign Languages Coordinator. Challenges must be accomplished before the census cut-off date. Students who previously have received a W or a letter grade for the course are not eligible to challenge the course.

C. Post-assessment

The instructor will maintain a continuous record of each student's progress on a institutionally approved grade sheet or computerized substitute. All instructors must keep records in such a way that information would be clear to a second party having to check grade computation in special cases. An explanatory legend should be provided on the grade sheet.

The evaluation of the exam should be based on the student's mastery of the assigned objectives. In addition to readings, verb tenses, vocabulary and spelling, it is essential that the instructor require writing assignments throughout the semester. The instructor may also require a journal or free writing assignments.

1. Final Examinations

A final examination is required.

2. Grading Percentages

Grading percentages for determining the course grade may be devised by the individual instructor.

3. Retakes and Make-up Exams and Class Assignments.

At the instructor's discretion, students may be allowed to rewrite papers or retest for higher grades.

4. Grading Scale

100	-90	=	A
80	-89	=	B
70	-79	=	C
60	-69	=	D
50	-59	=	F
Withdrawal		=	W
Incomplete		=	I	← This grade is given only upon agreement between instructor and student.

IV. Disability Statement (Americans with/Disabilities Act [ADA])

EPCC offers a variety of services to persons with documented sensory, mental, physical, or temporary disabling conditions to promote success in classes. If you have a disability and believe you may need services, you are encouraged to contact the Center for Students with Disabilities to discuss your needs with a counselor. All discussions and documentation are kept confidential. Offices located: VV Rm C-112 (831-2426); TM Rm 1400 (831-5808); RG Rm B-201 (831-4198); NWC Rm M-54 (831-8815); and MDP Rm A-125 (831-7024)

V. 6 Drop Rule

Students who began attending Texas public institutions of higher education for the first time during the Fall 2007 semester or later are subject to a 6-Drop limit for all undergraduate classes. Developmental, ESL, Dual Credit and Early College High School classes are exempt from this rule. All students should consult with their instructor before dropping a class. Academic assistance is available. Students are encouraged to see Counseling Services if dropping because exemptions may apply. Refer to the EPCC catalog and website for additional information.

VI. Title IX and Sex Discrimination

Title 9 (20 U.S.C. 1681 & 34 C.F.R. Part 106) states the following "No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any educational program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance." The Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) prohibits stalking, date violence, sexual violence, and domestic violence for all students, employees and visitors (male and female). If you have any concerns related to discrimination, harassment, or assault (of any type) you can contact the Assistant to the Vice President for Student and Enrollment Services at 915-831-2655. Employees can call the Manager of Employee Relations at 915-831-6458. Reports of sexual assault/violence may also be reported to EPCC Police at 915-831-2200.
