IV. Evaluation

- a. Articulated Credit: This course articulates with Ysleta Independent School District and David L. Carrasco Job Corps Center. If you earned a minimum of 85 percent in your high school Business Information Management I class (Ysleta ISD) or in your Finance and Business Office Administration class (David L. Carrasco Job Corps Center) and graduated within the last 28 months, you may be able to get credit for this course. Students complete a Request for Award of Non-traditional Credit form available on the EPCC website and submit it to the Office of Admissions and Registration. The request forms may be initiated at any EPCC counseling office. The administrative assistants will forward the form to the Evaluations Department at Valle Verde.
- b. Challenge Exam: The Challenge Exam consists of a total of six (6) 5-minute timed writings using Championship Keyboarding Drills software. To pass the exam, you must keyboard a minimum of 25 words per minute and with no more than five (5) errors on at least three (3) timed writings. See the Computer Office Lab for details.

V. Disability Statement (Americans with/Disabilities Act [ADA])

EPCC offers a variety of services to persons with documented sensory, mental, physical, or temporary disabling conditions to promote success in classes. If you have a disability and believe you may need services, you are encouraged to contact the Center for Students with Disabilities to discuss your needs with a counselor. All discussions and documentation are kept confidential. Offices located: VV Rm C-112 (831-2426); TM Rm 1400 (831-5808); RG Rm B-201 (831-4198); NWC Rm M-54 (831-8815); and MDP Rm A-125 (831-7024).

VI. 6 Drop Rule

Students who began attending Texas public institutions of higher education for the first time during the Fall 2007 semester or later are subject to a 6-Drop limit for all undergraduate classes. Developmental, ESL, Dual Credit and Early College High School classes are exempt from this rule. All students should consult with their instructor before dropping a class. Academic assistance is available. Students are encouraged to see Counseling Services if dropping because exemptions may apply. Refer to the EPCC catalog and website for additional information.

VII. Title IX and Sex Discrimination

Title 9 (20 U.S.C. 1681 & 34 C.F.R. Part 106) states the following "No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any educational program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance." The Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) prohibits stalking, date violence, sexual violence, and domestic violence for all students, employees and visitors (male and female). If you have any concerns related to discrimination, harassment, or assault (of any type) you can contact the Assistant to the Vice President for Student and Enrollment Services at 915-831-2655. Employees can call the Manager of Employee Relations at 915-831-6458. Reports of sexual assault/violence may also be reported to EPCC Police at 915-831-2200.
