I. Catalog Description

Surveys all phases of theater and the relationship among the elements including its history, dramatic works, stage techniques, production procedures, acting, directing, staging, lighting, costuming, and relation to other fine arts. Participation in some aspects of the production process is required. Prerequisite: INRW 0311 or ESOL 0340 (can be taken concurrently) or by placement exam or ENGL 1301 with a “C” or better or ENGL 1302 with a “C” or better. (3:0).

II. Course Objectives

Upon satisfactory of this course, the students will be able to:

- A. Identify the relationship between life itself and the theatre: a recreation itself by actors on the stage before an audience.
- B. Engage in critical thinking skills, creative thinking, innovation, and inquiry, and demonstrate analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information.
- C. Recognize the seven “fine” art forms and to distinguish between the practical, the visual and the performing aspects of such forms.
- D. Demonstrate effective written, oral, and/or visual communication skills.
- E. Demonstrate teamwork skills the ability to consider different points of view and to work effectively with others to support a shared purpose or goal.
- F. Exhibit a sense of social responsibility by the performance in and completion of three specific areas. As a thinking audience member the student will attend a designated performance presented by the El Paso Community College Theatre Arts program. In a written essay, the student will illustrate his/her abilities as a critical thinker by offering analyses of the production based on guidelines.
- G. The student will be able to evaluate and/or describe a “live” theatrical performance by writing reviews and giving oral critiques which will demonstrate knowledge and expertise of theatrical art forms.

III. THECB Learning Outcomes (ACGM)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

- 1. Analyze theater through written responses to play texts and/or live performance.
- 2. Demonstrate a basic knowledge of theater history and dramatic works.
- 3. Describe the collaborative nature of theater arts.

4. Demonstrate the relationship of the arts to everyday life as well as broader historical and social contexts.

IV. Evaluation

- A. Pre Assessment
