- J. Demonstrate the ability to conduct a short oral briefing [an optional objective].

- K. Improve skills in grammar, spelling, and mechanics.

III. THECB Learning Outcomes (ACGM)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

1. Recognize, analyze, and accommodate diverse audiences.
2. Produce documents appropriate to audience, purpose, and genre.
3. Analyze the ethical responsibilities involved in technical communication.
4. Locate, evaluate, and incorporate pertinent information.
5. Develop verbal, visual, and multimedia materials as necessary, in individual and/or collaborative projects, as appropriate.
6. Edit for appropriate style, including attention to word choice, sentence structure, punctuation, and spelling.
7. Design and test documents for easy reading and navigation.

IV. Evaluation

- A. Conditions of Performance:

1. Writing assignments will be evaluated according to levels of editing: content, structure, style, format, mechanics,* and readability.
2. Oral reports may be assigned throughout the semester. The number and length shall be determined by the instructor.

[* includes grammar & spelling]

- B. Criteria for Grading:

1. Each unit will have its own evaluation determined by the instructor.*
2. The distribution and value of each graded assignment shall be determined by the instructor.
3. It is suggested that competency based evaluation be used in measuring the success of student assignments.

[* Various methods of evaluation are practical in the course. For example, the instructor may use a point system, a cumulative letter grade system, or a percentage system.]

4. Plagiarism is both intellectual theft and academic dishonesty and will not be tolerated. Any work that is plagiarized could result in failure of the course. See the Student Handbook.

- C. Grading Scale:

VI. 6 Drop Rule

Students who began attending Texas public institutions of higher education for the first time during the Fall 2007 semester or later are subject to a 6-Drop limit for all undergraduate classes. Developmental, ESL, Dual Credit and Early College High School classes are exempt from this rule. All students should consult with their instructor before dropping a class. Academic assistance is available. Students are encouraged to see Counseling Services if dropping because exemptions may apply. Refer to the EPCC catalog and website for additional information.

VII. Title IX and Sex Discrimination

Title 9 (20 U.S.C. 1681 & 34 C.F.R. Part 106) states the following "No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any educational program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance." The Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) prohibits stalking, date violence, sexual violence, and domestic violence for all students, employees and visitors (male and female). If you have any concerns related to discrimination, harassment, or assault (of any type) you can contact the Assistant to the Vice President for Student and Enrollment Services at 915-831-2655. Employees can call the Manager of Employee Relations at 915-831-6458. Reports of sexual assault/violence may also be reported to EPCC Police at 915-831-2200.
