I. Catalog Description

Builds upon existing oral proficiencies of heritage speakers of Spanish. Continues developing listening, speaking, reading and writing skills through analyses of literary and cultural texts and films. Grammar focuses on verb forms, accents and spelling. Prerequisite: INRW 0311 or ESOL 0340 (can be taken concurrently) or by placement exam or ENGL 1301 with a “C” or better or ENGL 1302 with a “C” or better. (3:0).

II. Course Objectives

Upon satisfactory completion of this course, the students will be able to:

- A. Demonstrate effective written, oral, and/or visual communication skills through oral Spanish reading. The reading speed should be equivalent to that of everyday speech with appropriate Spanish pronunciation, punctuation, and emphasis. The reading topics are of current events and short stories 1-3 pages in length.
- B. Demonstrate effective written, oral, and/or visual communication skills by developing Spanish reading comprehension skills that will correctly answer objective and analytical questions about the reading selections.
- C. Demonstrate critical thinking skills by engaging in creative thinking, innovation, and inquiry and demonstrating analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information by analyzing Spanish current topics, short stories, and films. The students will demonstrate knowledge of the aesthetic principles exemplified by the literary readings as well as knowledge of their social, historical, and cultural values.
- D. Demonstrate effective written, oral and/or visual communication skills through essays that evidence knowledge of Spanish grammar and language skills by writing in standard Spanish.
- E. Demonstrate social responsibility skills through the discussion of Hispanic films and literature that allow for different points of view and an opportunity to work with others to support a shared purpose or goal.
- F. Demonstrate personal responsibility skills by their ability to connect choices, actions and consequences to ethical decision-making by exhibiting familiarity with the contemporary cultures from the Spanish-speaking countries and expand the students’ ability to make cross-cultural comparisons.

- G. Demonstrate teamwork skills including the ability to consider different points of view and to work effectively with others to support a shared purpose or goal through the group work, instructor suggestions and revision of written work.

III. THECB Learning Outcomes (ACGM)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

1. Write dialogues, descriptions and narratives demonstrating:
 - Correct orthography and punctuation
 - Cohesion between sentences
 - Appropriate register
2. Demonstrate an expanded vocabulary.
3. Apply strategies for linking ideas in complex sentences.
4. Identify similarities and differences among distinct varieties of Spanish.
5. Give oral presentations in a formal register appropriate for professional and academic settings.
6. Describe cultural practices and products of the Spanish speaking world drawing on authentic materials including literature and the visual arts.

IV. Evaluation

A. Pre-assessment

Instructors should check each student's Placement exam results the first day of class; those who do not qualify should be sent back to admissions.

B. Challenge Exams

Students who wish to challenge the course should contact the Testing Center and the Foreign Languages Coordinator. Challenges must be accomplished before the census cut-off date. Students who previously have received a W or a letter grade for the course are not eligible to challenge the course.

C. Post-assessment

The instructor will maintain a continuous record of each student's progress on an institutionally approved grade sheet or computerized substitute. All instructors must keep records in such a way that information would be clear to a second party having to check grade computation in special cases. An explanatory legend should be provided on the grade sheet.

D. The evaluation of the exams should be based on the student's mastery of the assigned objectives. In addition to readings, verb tenses, vocabulary and spelling, it is essential that the instructor require writing assignments throughout the semester.

1. Final Examination

A final examination is required.

2. Grading Percentages

Grade percentages for determining the course grade may be devised by the individual instructor.

3. Retakes and Make-up Exams and Class Assignments.

At the instructor's discretion, students may be allowed to rewrite papers or retest for higher grades.

E. Grading Scale

V. Disability Statement (Americans with/Disabilities Act [ADA])

EPCC offers a variety of services to persons with documented sensory, mental, physical, or temporary disabling conditions to promote success in classes. If you have a disability and believe you may need services, you are encouraged to contact the Center for Students with Disabilities to discuss your needs with a counselor. All discussions and documentation are kept confidential. Offices located: VV Rm. C-112 (831-2426); TM Rm. 1400 (831-5808); RG Rm. B-201 (831-4198); NWC Rm. M-54 (831-8815); and MDP Rm. A-125 (831-7024).

VI. 6 Drop Rule

Students who began attending Texas public institutions of higher education for the first time during the Fall 2007 semester or later are subject to a 6-Drop limit for all undergraduate classes. Developmental, ESL, Dual Credit and Early College High School classes are exempt from this rule. All students should consult with their instructor before dropping a class. Academic assistance is available. Students are encouraged to see Counseling Services if dropping because exemptions may apply. Refer to the EPCC catalog and website for additional information.

VII. Title IX and Sex Discrimination

Title 9 (20 U.S.C. 1681 & 34 C.F.R. Part 106) states the following "No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any educational program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance." The Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) prohibits stalking, date violence, sexual violence, and domestic violence for all students, employees and visitors (male and female). If you have any concerns related to discrimination, harassment, or assault (of any type) you can contact the Assistant to the Vice President for Student and Enrollment Services at 915-831-2655. Employees can call the Manager of Employee Relations at 915-831-6458. Reports of sexual assault/violence may also be reported to EPCC Police at 915-831-2200.
