I. Catalog Description

A studio art course that introduces metalsmithing using basic techniques in jewelry design and metal construction. The course provides instruction and practical fabrication experience as it relates to the design and production of small-scale functional and/or non-functional objects. (2:4). Lab fee.

II. Course Objectives

Upon satisfactory completion of the course, the student will be able to:

- A. Identify the basic terminology of metalsmithing and use it effectively to express his/her ideas verbally.
- B. Describe basic metalsmithing techniques.
- C. Identify the basic technical metalsmithing skills such as sawing, simple forming, silver soldering, cold connections, surface finishes, surface texturing treatments, and metal patination. Develop good craftsmanship and working habits needed to achieve strong three-dimensional visual statements.
- E. Create properly composed, well balanced three-dimensional designs using metal and various materials.
- F. Recognize a well-crafted piece of art.
- G. Effectively apply basic metalsmithing skills and techniques to create his/her own three-dimensional statements.

III. THECB Learning Outcomes (ACGM)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

- 1. Generate works that demonstrate descriptive, expressive, and conceptual approaches, using materials including, but not limited to, various metals.
- 2. Apply the elements of art and principles of design.
- 3. Employ basic processes, including, but not limited to, shaping, cutting, forming, and other construction techniques.
- 4. Analyze and critique works verbally and/or in writing.
- 5. Relate metalsmithing to art history and contemporary artistic production.
- 6. Demonstrate an appropriate level of professional practice, including safety, craft, and presentation.

IV. EvaluationA. Pre-assessment

Instructors should check each student's prerequisites the first week of class; those who do not qualify should be sent back to Admissions.

B. Challenge Exam

There is no challenge exam for this course.

C. Post-assessment

Each student's grade will be determined by the instructor upon successful completion of the course objectives. Instructors will maintain adequate records of student progress according to the guidelines established by the college.
