I. Catalog Description

Builds upon existing oral proficiencies of heritage speakers of Spanish. Enhances proficiencies in the home-based language by developing a full range of registers including public speaking and formal written discourse. Emphasis on comprehension, appreciation, and interpretation of the cultures of the Spanish-speaking world. (3:0).

II. Course Objectives

Upon satisfactory completion of this course, the students will be able to:

- A. Demonstrate effective oral, and visual communication skills through dialogues, descriptions, and oral presentations in cultural and literary contexts.
- B. Demonstrate effective written, communication skills through essays that evidence expanded vocabulary, cohesiveness and proper orthography and punctuation in cultural and literary contexts.
- C. Read authentic texts and short stories from the Spanish-speaking world. Demonstrate reading comprehension skills by correctly answering objective and analytical questions about the reading selections.
- D. Demonstrate critical thinking skills by engaging in creative thinking, innovation, and inquiry. Students will be required to synthesize, analyze, evaluate, and discuss current events, short stories, and/or films from the Spanish-Speaking world.
- E. Demonstrate effective written, oral and/or visual communication skills through essays that evidence knowledge of Spanish grammar and language skills by writing in standard Spanish.
- F. Demonstrate social responsibility skills by acknowledging their role and engaging effectively in local, regional, national, and/or global communities through the discussion of current events, films and literature. Students will demonstrate knowledge of their social, historical, and cultural values and of the contemporary cultures from Spanish-speaking countries.
- G. Demonstrate personal responsibility skills by their ability to connect choices, actions and consequences to ethical decision-making.

- H. Demonstrate teamwork skills including the ability to consider different points of view by working with others effectively to support a shared purpose or goal.
