I. Catalog Description

Builds upon existing oral proficiencies of heritage speakers of Spanish. Enhances proficiencies in the home-based language by developing a full range of registers including public speaking and formal written discourse. Emphasis on comprehension, appreciation, and interpretation of the cultures of the Spanish-speaking world. Prerequisite: SPAN 2313 or by Spanish Placement Exam. (3:0).

II. Course Objectives

Upon satisfactory completion of this course, the students will be able to:

- A. Demonstrate effective oral, and visual communication skills through narratives, discussions and oral presentations in cultural and literary contexts.
- B. Demonstrate effective written, communication skills through essays that evidence knowledge of Spanish grammar and development of rhetorical skills in cultural and literary contexts.
- C. Read authentic texts, short stories and/or novel excerpts from the Spanish-speaking world. Demonstrate reading comprehension skills by correctly answering objective and analytical questions about the reading selections.
- D. Demonstrate critical thinking skills by engaging in creative thinking, innovation, and inquiry. Students will be required to synthesize, analyze, evaluate, and discuss current events, short stories, novel excerpts and/or films from the Spanish-Speaking world.
- E. Demonstrate effective written, oral, and/or visual communication skills through essays that evidence knowledge of Spanish grammar and language skills by writing in Standard Spanish. Sentence effectiveness will be enhanced by learning the function of specific grammatical points and mechanical devices (e.g., spelling, written accent, verb tenses).
- F. Demonstrate social responsibility skills by acknowledging their role and engaging effectively in local, regional, national, and/or global communities through the discussion of current events, films and literature. Students will demonstrate knowledge of their social, historical, and cultural values and of the contemporary cultures from Spanish-speaking countries.

- G. Demonstrate teamwork skills including the ability to consider different points of view by working with others effectively to support a shared purpose or goal.
- H. Demonstrate personal responsibility skills by their ability to connect choices, actions and consequences to ethical decision-making.
